

Bragbook

Neighbor accomplishments worth noting

Robert Eifert of Peachtree City (right) was named Fraternity President of the Year at Mississippi State University's annual Greek Life Awards by John Michael VanHorn (left) of Mississippi State.

Shelley Buxbaum, director of the Lisa F. Brill Institute for Jewish Learning, has been honored for her leadership.

Malcolm Brogdon, a Greater Atlanta Christian School alumnus, is the ACC Player and Defensive Player of Year.

Joel Katz of Atlanta was named to the Super Lawyers Top 100 list.

Alexander Shunnarah of Atlanta has been named Master of Marketing by Trial Lawyer magazine.

Maggie Berthiaume of Woodward Academy was named Coach of the Year by Georgia Forensics Coaches Association.

Jordan Benson of Alpharetta High School is doing her internship in the cleanrooms at the Nanotechnology Lab at the Georgia Tech Research Institute, where she is working on a classified project that will be going up to the International Space Station.

Sara Futch of Lawrenceville received the Panhellenic Outstanding Greek Scholar award during the Wofford College Greek Awards Program.

Michael H. Trotter of Atlanta has been honored with a proclamation from the city of Atlanta for his significant contributions to the local community.

David Otis, Mike Otis and Jeremy Wood of Atlanta were presented with the "Platinum Market" award during City Wide Franchise's annual convention.

SHELAGH MAREE HARDRICH, FOR THEAJC

SEND US YOUR STORIES

Want to brag a little? This is the place for significant awards, grants, scholarships, military promotions and other milestones worthy of the community's recognition. Send items to Shelagh MaRee Hardrich at bragbookajc@gmail.com.

AJC.com

Go to AJC.com/s/neighborhoods for more coverage devoted to where you live, seven days a week.