

Plant Picks
Sept. 6, 2016

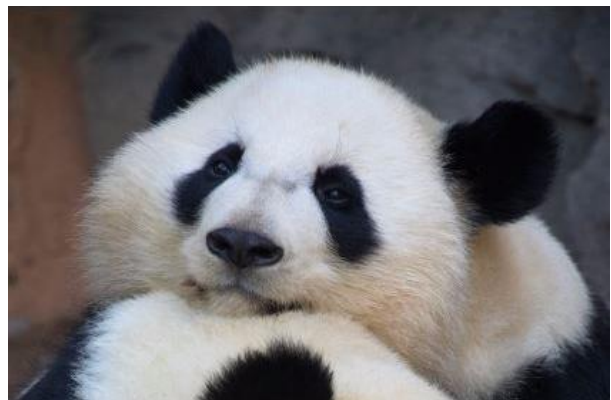

Check out our new look!
Visit us >

TOP STORIES

Things To Do In Atlanta This Weekend, Sept. 9-11

This weekend in Atlanta is a mix of season openers, family-friendly outings and the return of the Lantern Parade on the Atlanta BeltLine.

READ THE STORY

Courtesy Zoo Atlanta

Atlanta Rappers Circle Up For Soul Food Cypher

One group of Atlanta rappers has dedicated itself to the art of rap not only to keep its members lyrically on their toes, but as an educational tool.

READ THE STORY

Credit Wahid Khoshravani

Kyle Brooks Talks Inspiration, Atlanta Street Art

Perhaps you've seen artist Kyle Brooks' work in a gallery, but more likely, you've seen it on the side of the road as Atlanta street art.

READ THE STORY

Courtesy Kyle Brooks

OLD FOURTH WARD FALL FEST
 presented by xfinity

LET THE CELEBRATIONS BEGIN!
 FREE ADMISSION!

9.9.16 FRIDAY 5-11PM

9.10.16 SATURDAY 12-11PM

EVENTS HAPPENING THIS WEEK

Art On The Atlanta BeltLine - Lantern Parade
 Saturday
 Atlanta BeltLine Eastside Trail

The BeltLine's signature event drew more than 60,000 people last year.

EVENT INFO

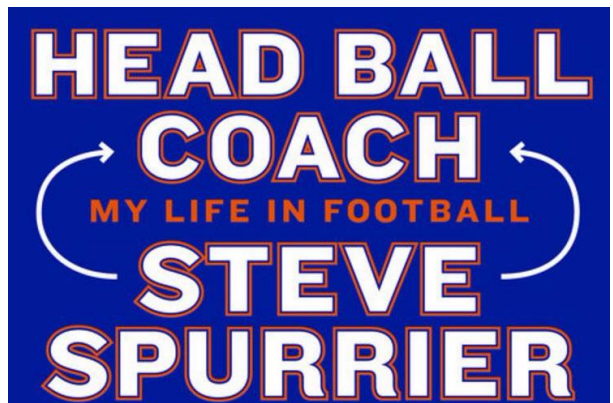

Credit Jaime Lee

Prologue To The Book Festival Of The MJCCA
 Wednesday
 MJCCA

Football coach Steve Spurrier will be signing copies of his new memoir, in which he shares his story of winning the Heisman Trophy to leading the Florida Gators to six SEC Championships.

EVENT INFO

Courtesy MJCCA

Coiling Culture: Basketry Art of Native North America

Opens Saturday

Michael C. Carlos Museum

Explore one of the first art forms in the Americas, from its roots in the Southeast to the Southwest and up into the Arctic.

EVENT INFO

Courtesy Michael C. Carlos Museum

Looking for more?

AtlantaPlant.org | Download the App

Free | Festivals | Music | Theater | Family | Museums | Galleries | Dance | Holiday | Public Art

Copyright © 2016. All Rights Reserved.