

HONORING SAMMY GRANT 2026

Monday, May 4, 2026

Atlanta Athletic Club
1930 Bobby Jones Drive
Johns Creek, Georgia

SAMMY GRANT

Sammy's Jewish identity has been shaped in large part by the Atlanta Jewish Community. A native Atlantan, Sammy attended the JCC preschool before enrolling at the Greenfield Hebrew Academy. Days were regularly spent at the JCC participating in sports, BBYO, or AJECOMCE Day Camps. Sammy spent 10 life-changing summers at Camp Barney Medintz as a camper and staff member. Sammy's children and extended family have carried on many of these traditions.

After graduating from Riverwood High School, Sammy attended the University of Georgia, where he obtained an accounting degree with honors. He became a Double Dawg and remained in Athens to earn his law degree from UGA's law school.

Professionally, Sammy began a career in wealth management at Arthur Andersen's Private Client Service group before first joining HB Wealth in 2002. Sammy is an attorney, CPA, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional, licensed real estate salesperson, and Chartered Life Underwriter. He brings a wealth of educational and professional experience to the high-net-worth individuals and families he serves working in a collaborative way to integrate all aspects of their financial needs and goals.

Sammy went on to form SG Financial Advisors before reuniting with his HB Wealth peers in a merger in early 2021. SG Financial Advisors, a fee-only wealth management firm based in Sandy Springs, was recognized twice as one of the fastest-growing companies owned by a University of Georgia alumni.

Serving the community was modeled for Sammy by his parents, Adrian and Ilene. He has been proud to continue their legacy of giving back through service and leadership. Sammy has served on the Board of Directors for Hillels of Georgia, Greenfield Hebrew Academy, The Epstein School, Leadership Sandy Springs, and The Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta, where he has served on the Capital Campaign Cabinet and as Chair of the Board of Directors in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Sammy's efforts and perspective have been recognized by his peers. He received the Abe Schwartz Young Leadership Award, was named to the Atlanta Business Chronicle's 40 Under 40 list, is a graduate of the Wexner Heritage Program, and was a member of the 2023 Leadership Atlanta class.

In his free time, Sammy rarely sits still. He has completed multiple Ironman triathlons and loves cycling and other endurance challenges. He lives in Sandy Springs and enjoys hiking and traveling with his wife, Tracey, and could not be more proud of his three beautiful children, Elizabeth, Jacob, and Heather.

The MJCCA has shaped Sammy from childhood to today.
He didn't just grow up here — he became who he is here.

From preschool days to youth sports, from summers at day camps to his very first job as a scorekeeper, the J has always been his home base. Camp Barney Medintz added its own chapter, first as a camper and later as staff, providing friendships, memories, and a sense of belonging that stayed with him long after those summers ended.

We are deeply grateful to the MJCCA for honoring Sammy's commitment to this community. He gives his time, his energy, and his whole heart because this place matters to him. It has always represented the values he holds closest: community, family, Jewish life, learning, health, and connection.

Guiding the MJCCA through COVID — alongside Jared — was challenging but also incredibly rewarding for Sammy. Together, they worked to protect not just programs and buildings, but the spirit of a community that has supported generations.

As a family, we are incredibly proud of Sammy. We see the care he puts into every decision, the relationships he nurtures, and the joy he finds in helping the MJCCA continue to thrive.

Our wish for the MJCCA is simple: continued strength, continued growth, and a future filled with leaders who care as deeply as Sammy does. May this community always remain a place to grow, learn, play, and belong — just as it has been for him.

*With love and gratitude,
Tracey, Elizabeth, Jacob, and Heather*

Mazal Tov, Sammy,

on this well-deserved honor at the MJCCA's golf tournament.

Those of us who know you well have been honoring you for years. Long before today's recognition, we've watched the way you show up — for your friends, for your family, and for this community. Your leadership is steady. Your generosity is quiet but constant. Your integrity speaks louder than any trophy ever could. You don't look for credit. You don't seek attention. You simply do what needs to be done. That is who you are.

You strengthen this community not only with what you give but also with how you live. We are proud to call you our friend and grateful to walk this journey alongside you.

With love, admiration, gratitude, and friendship,

Lisa and Michael Siegel

Sammy,

Congratulations on this well-deserved recognition.

Your steady leadership, heartfelt commitment to community, and ongoing efforts to enrich Jewish life in Atlanta inspire us all.
