

MJCCA Senior Management

Jared Powers Chief Executive Officer

Jared Powers holds a Bachelor of Arts in Finance from the University of Florida, an MBA in Finance from Georgia State University, and a teaching certificate from Mercer University. He began his career at the MJCCA as the Assistant Sports and Camp Director at Shirley Blumenthal Park in East Cobb. Jared successfully added to those responsibilities, becoming Chief Program Officer and overseeing all of the agency's programs and services. In addition to completing the JCCA's management training program, Jared has received the Marilyn Shubin Professional Staff Development Award for his outstanding contribution as a professional within the Atlanta Jewish community, the MJCCA's Leadership Award, and the MJCCA's Best New Program Award for implementing the agency's summer inclusion camp program for children with special needs.

Janel Margaretta Chief Development & Communications Officer

Janel Margaretta has more than 20 years of non-profit management and fundraising experience. Prior to joining the MJCCA, she was the Founding Director of the Mandel Center for Professional Excellence at the Jewish Federation of Palm Beach County, as well as the Director of Philanthropic Initiatives and the Associate Campaign Director. Janel has also worked for the United Jewish Communities, the Council of Jewish Federations, and the Jewish Federation in Boca Raton, FL. Janel holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from New York University. She was selected in 2010 by the Atlanta Business Chronicle as a "Top 40 Under 40" and received their Up & Comers Award. Under her direction, the MJCCA has restructured the financial resource development area of the agency and created strong messaging and branding.

Jim Mittenthal

Chief Program Officer, Residential Camping

Jim Mittenthal has more than 30 years of summer camping experience including more than 20 as Director of Camp Barney Medintz. Jim holds Bachelor of Science degrees in Architecture and Sociology from the University of Florida and a Master's degree in Clinical Social Work from the University of Denver. For more than a decade, Jim maintained a private practice specializing in psychotherapy for children and families. Under his direction, Camp Barney Medintz has flourished, now engaging 1,250 campers from 27 states and over 400 employees each summer.

Janice Wolf

Chief Financial & Administrative Officer

Janice Wolf has more than 25 years of financial management experience including many years as a principal at Ernst & Young. She is a certified public accountant who holds an MBA from Columbia University and a Bachelor of Arts from Smith College. Janice also has more than 20 years of volunteer experience as a board member and officer of several nonprofits including the Jewish Federation of Greater New Haven. Under Janice's direction, the MJCCA has realized financial stability, streamlined its operating costs, reduced its borrowing and associated costs, replaced and upgraded all software platforms, and improved cash flow. She oversees risk management for the agency and has upgraded all related processes and training. Additionally, Janice has overseen more than $6 million in capital construction projects.

Aida Rosario

Chief People Officer

Aida Rosario has more than 20 years of Human Resources experience both in the private and public sectors. She began her HR career at an Inc. 500 company where she became the Director of Human Resources, managing health benefits, compensation, performance management, and compliance. During her tenure, she was instrumental in growing the company from 70 employees to more than 500 nationwide. Aida is a leader in change management dedicated to continuous improvement. During her time at the MJCCA, she has been instrumental in creating and developing the HR function. She initiated the MJCCA's first-time nomination for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution Top Workplaces in Atlanta, now ranked for nine consecutive years. Aida holds a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Certification of Business Administration from Fordham University, College at Lincoln Center.