

MJCCA Dance Program Policies & Dress Code

Policies:

All MJCCA policies are enforced for the safety of our dancers and to maintain the decorum of our facilities. Please ensure that your child understands and adheres to all of our policies.

- Students must wear street shoes and a cover-up to and from the studio.
- Dress code must be followed. Students will not be allowed into class if dress code violations reoccur.
- No jewelry. Girls with newly pierced ears may wear small studs only.
- No gum, candy, food, or drinks (other than water) allowed into class.
- Parents must be prompt in picking up their children. Children must remain in the waiting room and not outside. We are not responsible for children once they leave our doors.
- MJCCA reserves the right to cancel any class due to insufficient attendance.
- MJCCA is not responsible for loss or damage to personal property. We have a lost and found box. If you find something left behind or have lost something, please check with the front desk.
- MJCCA reserves the right to have substitute teachers when regular teachers are absent.
- MJCCA reserves the right to prevent a student from entering class or to remove them for disorderly conduct/ disruptive behavior.
- MJCCA is not liable for any injuries sustained while in class.
