

THINGS TO DO

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7
Creative Loafing

Wednesday WindDown

Centennial Olympic Park

265 Park Ave. West N.W. (Downtown), 5:30 PM

Unwind in the Southern Company Amphitheater at Centennial Olympic Park with an evening of jazz, soul, rhythm and blues, and old-school hip-hop performed by your favorite local and national touring acts. The 2016 Wednesday WindDown season starts June 1.

Dine Out for Italy

Varuni Napoli

1540 Monroe Drive N.E. (Virginia-Highland/Morningside),
5:30 PM

Neapolitan pizza mainstay Varuni Napoli is giving back to chef and owner Luca Varuni's home country following last week's earthquake. The restaurant will host a Dine Out for Italy from 5:30 to 10 p.m., and a portion of the evening's sales will be donated to the Italian Red Cross. In addition, a special "Pizza of the Week" will be offered from Tuesday through Sunday, and a portion of proceeds from each sale of the pizza will be donated to the Italian Red Cross.

Artist Talk: Walthall Fellows

Museum of Contemporary Art of Georgia

75 Bennett St. N.W. (Buckhead), 6:30 PM - Free

Started in 2012 as a way to help artists navigate the art world at critical junctures in their careers, WonderRoot's Walthall Artist Fellowship is a year-long program that accepts only the 12 most compelling working life as an artist in Atlanta and as a Walthall Fellow. Get to the museum early to check out the Walthall Fellows Collection before it closes September 10. Moderated by MOCA GA curator Judy Barber.

Book Signing: Steve Spurrier

Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta

5342 Tilly Mill Road (Dunwoody), 7:30 PM - Free

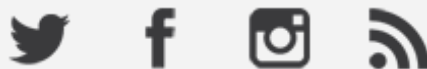

MJCCA is pleased to present Steve Spurrier's Head Ball Coach: My life in Football, Doing it Differently – and Winning. College football's colorful, endearing, and successful pioneer, Steve Spurrier, shares his story of a life in football—from growing up in Tennessee to winning the Heisman Trophy to playing and coaching in the pros to leading the Florida Gators to six SEC Championships and a National Championship to elevating the South Carolina program to new heights—and coaching like nobody else. He's been called brash, cocky, arrogant, pompous, egotistical, and hilarious, but, mostly, he's known as the Head Ball Coach. He is the only coach who can claim to be the winningest coach at two different SEC schools, and the only person who has won both the Heisman Trophy as a player and a national championship as a coach.

Cloth

The Goat Farm Arts Center

1200 Foster St. N.W. (Westside), 8:35 PM - $15-$50

GloATL founder and choreographer Lauri Stallings and Atlanta Symphony Orchestra conductor Robert Spano have been cooking up collaborative magic since 2011. Now comes to fruition the completion of a two-year durational exhibit titled cloth {field}. The six-movement landscape of scenes features Stallings' melding choreography with medieval lunging, fencing, and modern-day sprinting movements while Spano conducts a score composed to the tune of similar inspirations. The conceptual exhibit will also include gestural drawings within an environment of sound and movement for scenes of still life and the hereafter, lit by 23 chandeliers and approximately 130 candles.

Advertising | Contact Us | Privacy Policy

Click here to unsubscribe. Questions, comments, complaints? Contact Us.

Copyright 2015 © Creative Loafing Atlanta, GA 30303 | clatl.com