Oct 30–Nov 18, 2019

Calling all book lovers! From October 30 through November 18, 2019, the Book Festival of the MJCCA will celebrate 28 years of bringing culture and conversation to the greater Atlanta community. This year's Book Festival repertoire of 45+ authors has something to offer all festival-goers. More than 13,000 people from across the Southeast will come to engage with and listen to their favorite local, national, and international authors. All events will be held at the Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta (MJCCA), 5342 Tilly Mill Road, Dunwoody.

Headlining authors include: Preet Bharara, Hillary Rodham Clinton and Chelsea Clinton, Akbar Gbajabiamila, Nikki R. Haley, Jodi Kantor, Adam Rippon, Bari Weiss, Henry Winkler, and many more!

Local authors include: Perry Brickman, Zoe Fishman, Sherry Frank, Lynn Garson, Andy Lipman, Bev Saltzman Lewyn, Pat Mitchell, Brent Pease and Kyle Pease, I.J. Rosenberg, and Robyn Spizman.

"We are thrilled about this year's lineup," said Book Festival Co-Chair Deena Profis. "The 28th Edition of the Book Festival of the MJCCA features everyone from acclaimed actors and renowned political figures; to historians and award-winning novelists; to authors presenting award-winning cookbooks and riveting memoirs. We truly have something for everyone."

"Included in our exciting lineup are some of Atlanta's best local authors presenting their work," explained Book Festival Co-Chair Susie Hyman. "Additionally, I am thrilled that we will bring back our 'In Conversation' interviews between authors and local journalists; as well as various events with book clubs from throughout the city."

To purchase tickets for each individual event, or, for a better value, purchase a series pass for access to most of the November events. Some events are free.
